

Tzedakah

Tzedakah means giving money or material goods (things) to help the poor or the needy.

Join the dots to complete the picture.

Chesed

Chesed means acts of loving kindness, doing things that make other people better off or happier without gaining anything in return.

Help Benjamin find his way to the hospital to visit the sick children.

Spot the 8 differences

